Sehr geehrte Bitcoin Diplomaten-innen, bevor ich meine Bitcoin Magie starte, müssen nach wie vor einige Voraussetzungen erfüllt werden. Daher finde ich es hinterhältig, meine Nachrichten zu manipulieren, und die Investoren zu täuschen. Für meine Dienstleistung gibt es auch ein Produkt. Um dieses Produkt zu produzieren, müssen die politischen Schwierigkeiten ausgeräumt werden.

Erst danach kann ich meine Zeremonie mit den ersten Schöpfergott Atum Ra ausführen. Wenn es nach mir ginge, könnten wir morgen schon anfangen, jedoch ist der Dauer dieses Problems keinesfalls mein Verschulden, denn es sind die gierigen Politiker-innen, die am liebsten meine Magie und Zukunftstechnologien selbst besitzen möchten, oder versuchen zu enteignen, bevor Sie mit mir kooperieren. Wenn Ihr eine Beschleunigung wünscht, dann müssen Sie sich an die verlogenen Politiker-innen wenden, denn Sie sind Es die mir alle meiner Unternehmungen sabotieren.

Hier habe ich den LinkedIn Verlauf von Alex Bondar (bitcoin.com) angehängt, damit Sie die Original Nachricht von mir sehen, die hinterher gefakt wurde:

• Bitcoin.com offer sounds tempting!

- Hello Alex Bondar,
- Your offer sounds tempting, because so far I have more enemies than friends because you all (worldwide politicians and big corporations SpaceX, NASA, Elon Musk, and many more, even my current employer Bosch GmbH Germany) want to pretend you are me , Bitcoin Ptah, the real bitcoin pusher, or as if you had my solutions for the future technologies of the self-charging battery and the gravity-generating machine. I am being fought very hard from all sides because you all know that I was responsible for the last bitcoin price up ($67,000). It wasn't until I started asking for money for my services that everyone started imitating me. Except for Elon Musk, because he's done it from the start.
- That's why your offer comes across as a sign from God. For this reason I am interested in your offer and would like to know more about it. My mission is that I first need an impartial state where I will set up a space research and invention center so that I can patent and then realize my future technologies. I learned a lot from the manipulators who, to get my concepts, hacked my computer and raided my apartment under false pretenses to take my sketch drawing of my gravity-generating machine. You can maybe imagine where the useless drawing that was in the initial phase ended up. Without having found an impartial state that will cooperate with me, I can neither realize my future technologies nor do I see the need to start my Bitcoin Push magic. The richest Bitcoin investors trust me. Under no circumstances do I want to abuse this trust, because these future technologies will change the course of all of our careers in the long term.

- I also have to be honest and confess that my enemies have brought me to the point of existence, so while I have the Bitcoin Push magic and future technologies, I can't afford any further expenses to be able to pay for your services. Otherwise, I see no reason to continue my Bitcoin magic again without being paid for it. So I'm very excited to see what our cooperation will look like.
